Re. Continued boycott of the House by some opposition parties

SHRI P. UPENDRA (Andhra Pradesh): Yesterday I and Mr. Swamina-than referred to the continuing boycott of the House by some Opposition parties. We requested you, and through you, the Chairman, to take the initiative to break the deadlock and continue the dialogue with the parties concerned so that democracy can function normally and the House functions normally. You had assured the House that you will convey this to the Chairman, And, as directed by you 1 conveyed the sentiments of the House to some of the Opposition leaders. I think you will take the House into confidence about the talks which are going on. 1 believe the Chairman and you met some of the leaders yesterday. We would like to know whether a solution is nearer or distant. We want to know what is happening.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: As it was mentioned by you and by Mr. Swaminathan and the response from the Leader of the House, Mr. Chavan, was there, I very sincerely conveyed the sentiments of the House to the Chairman and the Chairman has taken note of it. He had a meeting with Members. I also had a meeting with the Members. Similarly in the other House, Mr. Speaker is also having his initiative. I would not at this stage be able to tell you what the results are and how far we have reached in our efforts towards success, but 1 always feel that there should be a hope andgood wish that the people will understand, because, after all, I am sure, the Opposition also would realise that they have a duty towards Parliament, as they want the Government to realise their duty towards Parliament. We all are responsible equally to maintain the dignity of the institution of which we are Members,
